

2009 APPLICATION for corporate candidates THE LEGIS CONGRESSIONAL FELLOWSHIP

Term for which you are applying: FULL-YEAR WINTER SPRING

I. Personal Data

First Name _____ Last Name _____ MI _____
Title/Position _____
Sponsoring Company _____ Citizenship _____

II. Contact Information

Office Address _____
Room _____ City _____ State _____ Zip _____
Office Telephone _____ Fax _____
Office E-mail _____
Home Address _____
Home Telephone _____ Mobile _____
Home E-mail _____
Candidate Signature _____ Date _____

APPLICATION CHECKLIST

In order for your fellowship application to be complete, it must contain all of the following:

- This application form
- A current, detailed résumé
- A statement from the applicant explaining why he/she is interested in becoming a Legis Congressional Fellow and how this experience will benefit his/her career (detailed in section V)
- A corporate nomination/recommendation letter (detailed in section VI)

All materials should be sent to Malcolm Ewing:

Malcolm Ewing
The Brookings Institution
1775 Massachusetts Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20036
Tel: 202.797.6317 | Fax: 202.797.6133 | E-mail: mewing@brookings.edu

III. Professional Experience and Skills

Please attach a résumé detailing your current and prior employment. It should include company names and locations, descriptions of positions held, and dates of employment.

A. Government Employment History

If you have worked for the government (federal or state level) or held any positions in government relations or regulatory affairs, please describe them here. Include your job responsibilities and dates of service.

B. Current Employment

Describe the unit for which you are responsible and detail your current responsibilities.

C. Activities

Please list the organizations/activities (civic, social, business, or professional) in which you have been actively involved during the past five years. Describe the work of each organization and your specific role.

D. Policy Interests and Skills

If you are chosen as a Legis Fellow, how will you contribute to the policy work of your congressional committee or personal staff? In which policy areas do you feel like you could add value?

IV. Education

A. School(s) Attended	Major	Degree Awarded & Dates Attended

B. Additional Training

Please list any other relevant training (including business, executive education, Armed Forces, or vocational).

V. Personal Statement

Please describe why you are interested in becoming a Legis Congressional Fellow, and what you expect to accomplish during your fellowship. What specific benefits do you anticipate? How will service in Congress impact your career? How will you use your experiences when you return to your sponsoring company?

Please attach a separate sheet with your statement.

VI. Corporate Recommendation

The candidate must be nominated by a senior executive of the sponsoring corporation. The nominator must provide a letter of recommendation that addresses the strength of the candidate as well as the company's commitment to the candidate's career after the completion of the fellowship. The company must also commit to providing appropriate financial support during the duration of the fellowship.

Please attach a separate sheet with your recommendation.

Nominator Signature _____ Date _____

VII. Billing Information

The Brookings Institution will send all billing inquiries to the address provided here.

Name _____

Title/Position _____

Address _____

Room _____ City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Telephone _____ Fax _____