

June 2007

W. E. Frenzel

Address

The Brookings Institution
1775 Massachusetts Avenue NW
Washington, DC 20036

e-mail: wfrenzel@brookings.edu
phone: 202-797- 6086
fax: 202-797-6181
web:<http://www.brookings.edu/scholars/wfrenzel.htm>

Current positions

The Brookings Institution. Economic Studies Program. Guest Scholar. 1991 - present.
Chairman, President's Advisory Commission on Trade Policy and Negotiations. 2002 – present.
Co-Chair, Bretton Woods Committee.
Chairman, Pew Commission on Children in Foster Care.
Vice-Chair, The Eurasia Foundation.
Co-Chair, Committee for a Responsible Federal Budget.
Co-Chair, Committee for Strategic Tax Reform
Member, Secretary of State's Advisory Committee for Leadership and Management
Member, President's Advisory Panel on Tax Reform. 2005-present

Previous positions

President' Advisory Panel on Tax Reform (2005)
Member, President's Commission to Strengthen Social Security (2002)
Special Advisor to President Clinton on NAFTA (1994)
Member, U.S. House of Representatives (R-Minn., 1971-91)
Ranking Minority Member, House Budget Committee and House Administration Committee
Member, Subcommittee on Trade, House Ways and Means Committee
Congressional Representative to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT)

Education

Dartmouth College, M.B.A., 1951.
Dartmouth College, B.A., 1950.

Publications

"The Tax Cut: Will it Rest in Peace, or Shine in Glory?" Brookings Review (Spring 2000)
"Assessing the 104th Congress—This One is Different!" Brookings Review (Spring 1996)

"Defending the Dinosaur—The Case for Not Fixing the Filibuster," Brookings Review (Summer 1995)

"GATT: Where the Real Money Is," Brookings Review (Summer 1994)

"Term Limits and the Immortal Congress: How to Make Congressional Elections Competitive Again," Brookings Review (Spring 1992)

"A Close Call for Free Trade: American Business Returns to the Gatt Fold," Brookings Review (Fall 1991)

"They Never Tear the Cuff Links Off Congressmen Who Say No: Why Endless Deficits Persist," Brookings Review (Summer 1991)