Master of Science in Leadership Application

Thank you for your interest in applying to the Master of Science in Leadership degree. Now more than ever, the country needs officials who seek the knowledge, skills and leadership capabilities required for senior-level service. To be effective, you need to broaden and deepen your learning strategies. The Brookings Institution and Washington University in St. Louis have partnered to provide a unique degree specifically designed for leadership in the public sector. Thank you for your interest in working with us on your pursuit of leadership excellence.

Our admission process has been designed to give us an opportunity to get to know you and your potential. As you are completing the process, we hope that you have the opportunity to get to know us too. To begin to get to know each other, we will ask you to send us some information about yourself.

- 1) A completed application form
- 2) Transcripts from any college or university that you have attended
- 3) A detailed resume describing your major projects and career highlights
- 4) A personal statement about why you are pursuing a Master of Science in Leadership
- 5) A $100 application fee (check payable to Washington University; to pay by credit card please call our registrar at 202.797.6276)

Upon receiving the materials above, we will find a mutually convenient time to talk by phone. This will provide us an opportunity to get to know one another better and ensure that we answer your questions about the program.

The Master of Science in Leadership program is designed with the flexibility to begin at any point in the year. We welcome you to apply when it's most convenient for you.
