

CURRICULUM VITAE

Thomas J. Wright

---

EDUCATION

- 2007                      PhD in Government (International Relations), Georgetown University. Thesis: Great Power Responses to Threat Transitions and the Legitimacy Burden: U.S. Soviet Relations 1943-1950
- 1998-99                  M Phil in International Studies, Cambridge University
- 1996-97                  MA in Comparative Politics, University College Dublin
- 1993-96                  BA in History and Politics, University College Dublin

EMPLOYMENT

- 05/2017 – present     Director and Senior Fellow, The Center for the United States and Europe, The Brookings Institution
- 11/2014 – 05/17       Director and Fellow, Project on International Order and Strategy, The Brookings Institution
- 12/2011 – 10/14       Fellow, Project on International Order and Strategy, The Brookings Institution
- 7/2011 – 12/11        Senior Policy Adviser to the CEO, Chopper Trading, Chicago
- 8/ 2008 – 7/11         Executive Director of Studies, The Chicago Council on Global Affairs
- 9/2005 – 7/08         Senior Researcher, Princeton Project on National Security
- 8/1999 – 7/ 2001      Public Affairs Consultant, Drury Communications, Dublin

ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

- 2010 - 11      Adjunct Lecturer in U.S. National Security Policy, The Harris School for Public Policy, University of Chicago
- 2007-08      Post-doctoral Fellow, Princeton Institute for International and Regional Studies, Princeton University
- 2004-07      Pre-doctoral Fellow, International Security Program Belfer Center for Science and International Affairs, Harvard University (resident 2004-05, non-resident 2005-07)
- Fall 2006      Lecturer, International Relations Gateway for Masters in Public Administration class, Woodrow Wilson School, Princeton University
- 2001-04      Teaching Assistant, Introduction to International Relations, Georgetown University

PUBLICATIONS

Book

Co-authored with Colin Kahl, Aftershocks: Pandemic Politics and the End of the Old International Order, forthcoming with St. Martin's Press, August 24 2021

All Measures Short of War: The Contest for the 21st Century and the Future of American Power, New Haven, CT: Yale University Press, May 2017

A full list of my other publications is available at:

<https://www.brookings.edu/author/thomas-wright/?type=all>

CURRENT AFFILIATIONS

Contributing Writer for The Atlantic, 2019- present

Intelligence Community Associate, 2019- present

Non resident fellow, The Lowy Institute, Sydney