

Khaled Elgindy

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

The Brookings Institution, Center for Middle East Policy

Washington, DC

Mar. 2010 – Present

Fellow:

- Prepare analyses, commentary and other scholarly materials on issues related to U.S. policy in the Middle East policy, with a particular focus on Arab-Israeli relations, Palestinian affairs, Egypt politics, and democratization in the Arab world.

Adam Smith International (Negotiations Support Unit)

Ramallah, West Bank

Jan. 2004 – Dec. 2009

Policy Advisor:

- Advised Palestinian leadership on matters related to permanent status negotiations.
- In addition to managing NSU Settlements File, served as lead advisor on territory/borders during 2008 Annapolis negotiations.

Independent Political Consultant

Washington, DC

Oct. 2002 – Jan. 2004

- Provided research/analysis for diverse clientele on a range of domestic and foreign policy issues, including human rights, democratization, counterterrorism, U.S. elections, etc.

U.S. House of Representatives, International Relations Committee Subcommittee on International Operations & Human Rights

Washington, DC

Jan. 2002 – Sep. 2002

Professional Staff Member:

- Managed foreign policy and human rights work for the Subcommittee's Ranking Member, including preparing hearings, resolutions, statements, briefs, correspondence, and other legislative materials.

United States Commission on International Religious Freedom

Washington, DC

Jan. 2000 – Jan. 2002

Policy Analyst:

- Researched and authored official Commission reports, briefs, and other studies related to U.S. foreign policy, religious freedom and human rights in Algeria, Egypt, Georgia, Iran, Israel/O.T., Nigeria, Saudi Arabia and Sudan.
- Arranged fact-finding missions to Nigeria, Egypt, Saudi Arabia, Israel/O.T. to assess religious freedom and human rights conditions.

Arab American Institute

Washington, DC

Mar. 1998 – Jan. 2000

National Coordinator for Political Action:

- Oversaw policy development and outreach on range of foreign/domestic policy issues.
- Managed national network of political activists and served as liaison with like-minded groups.

U.S. House of Representatives

Washington, DC

Sep. 1997 – Feb. 1998

Press Secretary:

- Managed all press-related tasks, including media relations, developing press strategy, and serving as official spokesperson for Member of Congress.

National Democratic Institute for International Affairs

Washington, DC

Jun. 1995 – Sep. 1997

Program Officer:

- Organized and managed democracy programs in Egypt, Yemen, Jordan, West Bank/Gaza and Lebanon, including political party training, election monitoring, civic educ. and regional programs.
- Initiated and managed NDI's programmatic presence in Egypt & Lebanon.

EDUCATION

Georgetown University, Washington, DC
Center for Contemporary Arab Studies

M.A. in Arab Studies

May 1994

Indiana University, Bloomington, IN
College of Arts and Sciences

B.A. in Political Science

Aug. 1991

LANGUAGES

- English: Native fluency; excellent writing, reporting and verbal communication skills.
- Arabic: Proficient in written (modern standard), near-fluency in spoken (colloquial).
- French: Written and spoken proficiency.
- Hebrew: Intermediate-level.