In addition I have written at least 100 blogs and op-eds and presented 100+ papers at meetings of professional organizations in the United States, Great Britain, Sweden, Norway, the Netherlands, Switzerland, Ethiopia, Malawi, Zambia, Zimbabwe, Kenya, South Korea, Sri Lanka, India, Kyrgyzstan, Mexico, Colombia, Honduras, Guatemala, Canada, Japan, Finland, Italy, Australia, New Zealand and probably other countries. I have also written many book reviews and short articles on refugee situations for publications in the field. Many of these are available at <http://www.brookings.edu/experts/ferrise>.

In addition to professional associations, I have also spoken extensively on forced migration and human rights issues for a wide range of groups, including the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, the Meeting of Experts on Human Rights at the CSCE meeting

(Oslo), the International Council of Christians and Jews, the International Council of Voluntary Agencies, the World Assembly of the World Alliance of YMCAs, the Swedish Foreign Policy Institute, the International Bahai Association, and the Senate Judiciary Committee of the US Congress.
