

ANGEL PASCUAL-RAMSAY

Academic Qualifications

2003–05	HARVARD UNIVERSITY. Kennedy School of Government Master in Public Administration. Concentration in Macroeconomics	Cambridge, US
1996–98	UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE MA Social and Political Sciences	Cambridge, UK
1991–95	ICADE UNIVERSITY BA European Business Administration. Cum Laude Thesis	Madrid, Spain

Professional Experience

2012–	ESADE BUSINESS SCHOOL - CENTRE FOR GLOBAL ECONOMY AND GEOPOLITICS Director, Global Risks. Overall responsibility for the Centre's work on global risks, with particular emphasis on the interaction of geopolitics and international political economy.	Madrid, Spain
2006–11	GOVERNMENT OF SPAIN OFFICE OF THE PRIME MINISTER Assistant to the Prime Minister, Strategy & Analysis Department. Responsible for briefing the Prime Minister on global political and economic trends, including, among other topics, the macroeconomic and geopolitical impact of the economic crisis; risks and opportunities from the rise of China and other emerging economies; the sovereign-debt crisis, scenarios for the Euro and economic governance challenges in the EU; G20 and international monetary system reform; the energy transition (renewables, non-conventional gas, etc.). Representation of the Government of Spain in international economic organizations and meetings. Assistance in the design of economic policy and speech-drafting for the Prime Minister. Member of core team responsible for the first Spanish Security Strategy, analyzing financial security, cyber-threats, geo-economic shifts, energy security and technological dangers. Prior to Office of the Prime Minister, appointments as Assistant to the Minister of Public Affairs and as Director of its Globalization and Governance Program.	Madrid, Spain
2005	EUROPEAN UNION INSTITUTE OF SECURITY STUDIES Visiting Fellow. Research and analysis of the role of the private sector and public/private partnerships in the EU's common foreign and security policy.	Paris, France
1998–03	ACCENTURE Consultant, Strategy Consulting Division Management consulting in the financial and technology sectors. Development of on-line banking strategy for global bank and design of international expansion strategy for multinational in the electronic media sector, among other projects. Worked in various European countries and the US Manager, Policy and Corporate Affairs Department Management of Accenture's relationship with economic fora and of public/private projects, including strategy to help UNDP leverage technology for development and launching incubator to support start-ups in developing economies. Research & analysis of global business trends.	London, UK & N. York, USA

Experience in global public/private fora

2010–11	OCDE – Representative of the Government of Spain in Network of Presidential Advisors.	Paris, France
2001–11	Davos World Economic Forum – Member of various preparatory working groups exploring responses to the challenges of globalisation through public/private collaboration.	Geneve, Switzerland
2001–02	G8 – Member of the Digital Opportunity Task Force , public/private partnership created by the G8 to foster private initiative and technology in developing economies.	London, UK

Teaching Experience

2012	Lecturer. Courses on Global Economics and Geopolitics	ESADE Business Sch
2005	Teaching Assistant in course Globalisation and its Critics . (Prof. Larry Summers)	Harvard University
2004	Teaching Assistant in course Business/Government Relationship . (Prof. Roger Porter)	Harvard University

Other

- Country consultant (Spain) for The Economist Group (2007).
- Selected Publications: 'Spain: the failure of a country', 2012 (book, author). 'New ideas to improve the functioning of financial markets'. IDEAS Foundation, 2008 (policy paper, contributor); 'The Spanish EU Presidency and the Transatlantic Agenda'. Elcano Foreign Affairs Institute, 2009 (policy paper, co-author). 'Spain in a globalized world' FIIAPP Foundation, 2007 (book, editor). Various op-eds in El País, Spain's leading newspaper.
- Languages: Spanish (Native); English (Bilingual); French (Fluent).