Grand Rapids-Wyoming, MI Metro Area
Missed Opportunity: Transit and Jobs in Metropolitan America

Transit Accessibility Profile

Coverage: 48%
Share of working-age residents near a transit stop
100 Metro Average: 69%

Service Frequency: 9.1
Median wait (minutes) for any rush hour transit vehicle
100 Metro Average: 10.1

Job Access: 47%
Share of all jobs reachable via transit in 90 minutes
100 Metro Average: 30%

Combined Access Rank: 32
Combined ranking on coverage and job access

Neighborhood Income and Location

Coverage
- Low Income: 75%
- Middle Income: 53%
- High Income: 19%
- City: 100%
- Suburbs: 32%

Service Frequency
- Low Income: 8.6
- Middle Income: 9.5
- High Income: 11.1
- City: 7.6
- Suburbs: 11.5

Job Access
- Low Income: 49%
- Middle Income: 47%
- High Income: 40%
- City: 58%
- Suburbs: 42%

- Low Income: under 80% Area Median Income (AMI); High Income: over 120% AMI
- City is first named city in metro area name plus other cities in name with at least 100,000 residents; suburbs are the remaining portion of metro area

Job Accessibility

To see interactive maps, click here to access the online mapping application

For media inquiries, contact Rachel Harvey at rharvey@brookings.edu