

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
1 From a Billion to Zero: Three Key Ingredients to End Extreme Poverty Laurence Chandy, Hiroshi Kato, and Homi Kharas	1
PART I. SECURING PEACE
2 No Development without Peace: Laying the Political and Security Foundations Bruce Jones	37
3 Bridging State and Local Communities in Fragile States: Subnational Institutions as a Strategic Focus to Restore State Legitimacy Ryutaro Murotani and Yoichi Mine	76
4 Peace Building and State Building in Fragile States: External Support That Works Alastair McKechnie and Marcus Manuel	95
5 A Thousand Paths to Poverty Reduction Gary Milante	132

PART II. CREATING JOBS

- 6 Agriculture's Role in Ending Extreme Poverty 175
John W. McArthur
- 7 Structural Change and Africa's Poverty Puzzle 219
John Page
- 8 Public Goods for Private Jobs:
Lessons from Postconflict Small Island States 249
Shane Evans and Michael Carnahan
- 9 Transforming Economies for Jobs and Inclusive Growth:
Strategies for Sub-Saharan Countries 275
Akio Hosono

PART III. BUILDING RESILIENCE

- 10 Social Policy and the Elimination of Extreme Poverty 301
Raj M. Desai
- 11 The Two Fragilities:
Vulnerability to Conflict, Environmental Stress, and
Their Interactions as Challenges to Ending Poverty 328
Stephen C. Smith
- 12 Toward Community Resilience:
The Role of Social Capital after Disasters 369
Go Shimada
- Contributors 399
- Index 401