

CONTENTS

Publication Note	ix
Foreword by Henry A. Kissinger	xi
Foreword by Helmut Schmidt	xiii
Note from The Brookings Institution	xvii

1991

1 Clearing up Triangular Debt Must Start with the Source— Fixed-Asset Investments	1
2 Comments on the Economic Development of Western China	17
3 Work Hard to Develop the Shipbuilding Industry	20
4 On-Time Performance Is at the Heart of Civil Aviation Service Quality	25
5 Speed Up Technical Improvements and Do a Good Job at Large and Medium SOEs	30
6 The Key to Controlling Redundant Construction Lies with the Banks	44
7 Work Hard on the Internal Restructuring of Industries	48

1992

8 On Comprehensively and Correctly Understanding the Spirit of Deng Xiaoping's Talks in Southern China	53
9 On Being a Scholar and Being a Person	69
10 Quality Is the Lifeblood of Enterprises	70
11 Raising Labor Productivity Is the Key to Turning around Losses and Improving Efficiency in the Coal Sector	83
12 Speech at a Symposium on Stock Market Pilot Programs in Some Provinces and Cities	92
13 Guangdong's Practice Demonstrates the Success of the Policy of Reform and Opening Up	102
14 Some Comments on the Current Economic Situation and Macroeconomic Controls	109

1993

15	Speed Up Railroad Construction and the Pace of Reform	123
16	Implement Genuine Separation of Government and Enterprises	131
17	Thirteen Measures for Strengthening Macroeconomic Controls	133
18	“Three Ground Rules” for Financial Work	144
19	Rectify the Fiscal and Tax Order, Step Up Fiscal and Tax Reforms	155
20	Eight Measures for Solving the Shortage of Funds	171
21	Tax Streaming Will Promote Guangdong’s Development	177
22	Letter to Jiang Zemin, Li Peng, and the Standing Committee of the Politburo on Implementation of the Tax-Streaming System	189
23	Establish Environmental Awareness among All the People	194
24	Summation Speech at the 1993 National Conference on Economic Work	198
25	Stabilize Grain and Oil Prices and Steady the Market Supply	218

1994

26	A Conversation with U.S. Secretary of the Treasury Lloyd Bentsen	232
27	Revenues from Land Sales Should First Be Used to Relocate Displaced Households	240
28	Taking a Critical Step Forward in Financial Reforms	241
29	Establish a Social Security System with Chinese Characteristics	256
30	A Conversation with Alan Greenspan, Chairman of the U.S. Federal Reserve Board	259
31	Strengthen Management of the State’s Forex Reserves and Foreign Debt	267
32	A Letter to Central Government Leaders on the Report by the National People’s Congress on Implementation of the Agricultural Law	272

1995

33	A Conversation with Japanese Finance Minister Takemura Masayoshi	274
34	On Current Monetary Policy	280
35	On Economic Work in Beijing	283
36	A Memorable Two Years as Governor of the Central Bank	286

37	Thoughts on How Xinjiang Should Develop Its Economy	292
38	Congratulations to Mr. Chen Daisun on His 95th Birthday	302
39	Letters and Petitions Are an Important Channel for Gaining a Sense of the People	305
40	Take Effective Measures to Lift Impoverished Areas out of Poverty	309

1996

41	Selling Off Small SOEs Is Not a “Miracle Cure”	315
42	Adjust and Refine Processing Trade Policy	322
43	Do a Good Job of Opening Up the Financial and Insurance Market to the Outside	329
44	On Enterprise Bankruptcy and Capital Restructuring	334
45	Some Issues in Macroeconomic and Tax Work	342

1997

46	Forcefully Promote Enterprise Reforms and Actively Implement Reemployment Projects	366
47	What to Do after a Bumper Harvest	375
48	On Reform of the Housing System	382
49	A Conversation with Alan Greenspan, Chairman of the U.S. Federal Reserve	391
50	Having a Lot of Cotton Is a Joyous Burden	397
51	Don't Start a Fad When Implementing a Shareholding System	406
52	Basic Medical Insurance Should Be Low in Level but Broad in Coverage	410
53	Deepen Financial Reforms and Guard against Financial Risks	418
54	Truly Learn the Lessons of the Asian Financial Crisis	437

	Index	445
--	-------	-----