

CONTENTS

FOREWORD by Stephen G. Breyer	vii
PROLOGUE	xi
1 Mr. Coleman Goes to Washington	1
PART I THE FORMATIVE YEARS
2 Roots	7
3 Making Jewels out of Rough Diamonds	15
4 Home Sweet Home	22
5 School Days	26
6 Sibling Rivalries	30
7 College Years	34
PART II LEARNING TO BE A GOOD LAWYER
8 Harvard Law School	43
9 War	56
10 After the War	69
11 Clerking for the Good Judge	73
12 Justice Frankfurter	78
13 Life at the Supreme Court and in the Nation's Capital	87
PART III NEW YORK, NEW YORK
14 From the Ivory Tower to the Working World	97
15 American History in Black and White	105
16 Chipping away at Plessy	116
17 The Brown Team	120

PART IV A PHILADELPHIA LAWYER
18	The City of Brotherly Love 129
19	Expert in Relevance 134
20	The Tipping Point 143
21	Reargument, December 7, 1953 150
22	With All Deliberate Speed 156
23	Enforcing the Court's Order 161
24	A Lawyer's Public Service Obligation 168
25	Managing the Dilworth Litigation Department 183
26	The Girard College Case 193
27	The Legacy of Houston-Hastie-Marshall 199
28	The Nixon Years 205
PART V SERVING IN THE FORD CABINET
29	Change in Course 213
30	Cabinet-Style Government 220
31	Getting to Know the Department of Transportation 230
32	Making Transportation Policy 245
33	The Decisionmaking Process 258
34	A Time of Transition 269
PART VI A WASHINGTON LAWYER
35	The Sun Also Rises in the East 281
36	Building the Washington Practice 289
37	The Bob Jones Case 300
38	Supreme Court Practice 309
39	The Robert Bork Hearings 321
40	Is Race Still Relevant? 335
41	Opportunities for Public Service 342
42	Reflecting on Republicans and Race 355
43	Counsel for the Situation 366
	EPILOGUE 377
	ACKNOWLEDGMENTS 379
	CHRONOLOGY OF THE LIFE OF WILLIAM T. COLEMAN JR. 381
	PRINCIPAL CASES CITED 388
	BIBLIOGRAPHY 390
	NOTES 397
	INDEX 443