

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
1 Education Governance in America: Who Leads When Everyone Is in Charge? Patrick McGuinn and Paul Manna	1
PART I THE PROBLEM
2 The Failures of U.S. Education Governance Today Chester E. Finn Jr. and Michael J. Petrilli	21
3 How Current Education Governance Distorts Financial Decisionmaking Marguerite Roza	36
4 Governance Challenges to Innovators within the System Michelle R. Davis	58
5 Governance Challenges to Innovators outside the System Steven F. Wilson	78
PART II TRADITIONAL INSTITUTIONS IN FLUX
6 Rethinking District Governance Frederick M. Hess and Olivia M. Meeks	107
7 Interstate Governance of Standards and Testing Kathryn A. McDermott	130

8	Education Governance in Performance-Based Federalism Kenneth K. Wong	156
9	The Rise of Education Executives in the White House, State House, and Mayor's Office Jeffrey R. Henig	178
PART III
LESSONS FROM OTHER NATIONS AND SECTORS
10	English Perspectives on Education Governance and Delivery Michael Barber	209
11	Education Governance in Canada and the United States Sandra Vergari	231
12	Education Governance in Comparative Perspective Michael Mintrom and Richard Walley	252
13	Governance Lessons from the Health Care and Environment Sectors Barry G. Rabe	275
PART IV
PATHS FORWARD
14	Toward a Coherent and Fair Funding System Cynthia G. Brown	301
15	Picturing a Different Governance Structure for Public Education Paul T. Hill	329
16	From Theory to Results in Governance Reform Kenneth J. Meier	353
17	The Tall Task of Education Governance Reform Paul Manna and Patrick McGuinn	375
	About the Authors	393
	Index	401