

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
1 Introduction: On Management and Metaphor John D. Donahue and Mark H. Moore	1
2 Sea Change: Rewriting the Rules for Port Security after September 11 Pamela Varley	14
3 Unraveling a Risk-Management Challenge Malcolm K. Sparrow	25
4 PortStat: How the Coast Guard Could Use the PerformanceStat Leadership Strategy to Improve Port Security Robert D. Behn	55
5 Pursuing Public Value: Frameworks for Strategic Analysis and Action Herman B. Leonard and Mark H. Moore	84
6 The Tumbler's Task: A Collaborative Conception of Port Protection John D. Donahue and Richard J. Zeckhauser	116

7	Toward a Higher Purpose: Captain Englebert Navigates the Choppy Waters of Network Governance Stephen Goldsmith	133
8	Improving Port Security: A Twenty-First-Century Government Approach Elaine C. Kamarck	159
9	Calling Publics into Existence: The Political Arts of Public Management Mark H. Moore and Archon Fung	180
	Index	211