

Contents

	Acknowledgments	vii
1	Introduction Amy Liu, Roland V. Anglin, Richard M. Mizelle Jr., and Allison Plyer	1
PART 1. Defining Resilience
2	Professing Regional Resilience Kathryn A. Foster	17
PART 2. Building Resilience and Opportunity through Policy and Planning
3	School by School: The Transformation of New Orleans Public Education Andre Perry and Michael Schwam-Baird	31
4	Delivering High-Quality, Accessible Health Care: The Rise of Community Centers Karen DeSalvo	45
5	Criminal Justice Reforms Nadiene Van Dyke, Jon Wool, and Luceia LeDoux	64
6	Systemic Ethics Reform in Katrina's Aftermath David A. Marcello	82
7	Bringing New Orleans Home: Community, Faith, and Nonprofit-Driven Housing Recovery Kalima Rose	99

8	Evacuation Planning for Vulnerable Populations: Lessons from the New Orleans City Assisted Evacuation Plan John L. Renne	120
9	Come On in This House: Advancing Social Equity in Post-Katrina Mississippi Reilly Morse	131
10	A Tale of Uneven Comebacks: Community Planning and Neighborhood Design on the Mississippi Gulf Coast Mukesh Kumar	148
11	No More “Planning by Surprise”: Post-Katrina Land Use Planning in New Orleans Robert A. Collins	161
12	Coastal Restoration and Protection and the Future of New Orleans Mark S. Davis	173
PART 3. Building Resilience and Opportunity through Civil Society
13	Building Data Capacity to Foster Resilient Communities Allison Plyer and Elaine Ortiz	187
14	Rise of Community Organizations, Citizen Engagement, and New Institutions Frederick Weil	201
15	Plugging into the Power of Community: How Social Networks Energize Recovery Ann Carpenter and Nancy Montoya	220
16	Interracial Alliance Building in a Resilient New Orleans Jasmine Waddell, Silas Lee, and Breonne DeDecker	235
17	Leadership for a More Equitable Louisiana James A. Joseph, Lance C. Buhl, Richard L. McCline, and Leslie Williams	247
18	The Role of Philanthropy in Reducing Vulnerability and Promoting Opportunity in the Gulf South Ivye Allen, Linetta Gilbert, and Alandra Washington	260
	Contributors	275
	Index	277