

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction	1
Andrew F. Cooper and Alan S. Alexandroff

GREAT POWERS AND INTERNATIONAL STRUCTURE

1	The Three Faces of Liberal Internationalism	17
	G. John Ikenberry
2	Transgovernmental Networks and Emerging Powers	48
	Anne-Marie Slaughter and Thomas Hale
3	Labels Matter: Interpreting Rising Powers through Acronyms	63
	Andrew F. Cooper

RISING STATES

4	China's Rising Institutional Influence	83
	Gregory Chin
5	Reforming Institutions, Unreformed India?	105
	Amrita Narlikar
6	Brazil: What Kind of Rising State in What Kind of Institutional Order?	128
	Andrew Hurrell
7	Europe: Rising Superpower in a Bipolar World	151
	Andrew Moravcsik

RISING INSTITUTIONS

8	The “Great Recession” and the Emergence of the G-20 Leaders’ Summit Alan S. Alexandroff and John Kirton	177
9	The G-20 Finance Ministers: Network Governance John Kirton	196
10	BRIC by BRIC: The Emergent Regime for Sovereign Wealth Funds Daniel W. Drezner	218
11	Consuming Energy: Rising Powers, the International Energy Agency, and the Global Energy Architecture Flynt Leverett	240
12	The War on Terror and International Order: Strategic Choice and Global Governance Steven E. Miller	266
	Conclusion Alan S. Alexandroff and Andrew F. Cooper	294
	Contributors	307
	Index	311