

Contents

|     |                                                                       |    |
|-----|-----------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
|     | Acknowledgments                                                | ix |
| ONE | Introduction and OverviewTwo Chambers, Two Ways            | 1  |
| TWO | The House of RepresentativesWhere the Majority Party Rules | 7  |
|     | The Ways and Means andAppropriations Committees           | 9  |
|     | The Congressional Calendar                                     | 11 |
|     | The Legislative Process                                        | 15 |
|     | Leadership Structure                                           | 19 |
|     | The Rules Committee                                            | 23 |
|     | Rules of the House                                             | 24 |
|     | Types of Special Rules                                         | 26 |
|     | Open Rule                                                      | 27 |
|     | Modified Open Rule                                             | 28 |
|     | Structured and Closed Rules                                    | 29 |

|       |                                                                                           |    |
|-------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
|       | Committee of the Whole                                                             | 30 |
|       | Floor Procedure                                                                    | 32 |
| THREE | The Senate                                                                         | 35 |
|       | Where Debate and Deals Rule                                                        |    |
|       | Basics of Legislation in the Senate                                                | 38 |
|       | The Senate Calendar and Considerations of Time                                     | 40 |
|       | The Use of Cloture                                                                 | 42 |
|       | Life Cycles in the Senate                                                          | 46 |
|       | Types of Bills                                                                     | 55 |
|       | Taking Votes                                                                       | 57 |
|       | Working through the Process and the Role of the Majority                           | 58 |
|       | Majority Rule Versus Consent                                                       | 58 |
|       | Germaneness                                                                        | 60 |
|       | Committees                                                                         | 61 |
|       | Amendments and the Amendment Tree                                                  | 63 |
|       | Getting a Bill to the Floor                                                        | 67 |
|       | The Standard Committee Process                                                     | 68 |
|       | The Rule 14 Process                                                                | 69 |
|       | HR Vehicle                                                                         | 71 |
|       | Consent, or “Hotlining”                                                            | 72 |
|       | Privileged or Other Special Vehicles: Conferences, House Messages, Statutory Items | 74 |
|       | Substituting a New Text, and Amendment to a Moving Vehicle, Bill Packages          | 75 |
|       | Procedural Tools in the Senate                                                     | 76 |
|       | Common Moves and Terms                                                             | 78 |
|       | Fast-Moving or Unusual Vehicles                                                    | 90 |

|      |                                                            |     |
|------|------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
|      | Changes in the Senate Rules                         | 94  |
|      | The Senate as a Whole                               | 95  |
| FOUR | Conclusion                                          | 99  |
|      | Appendixes                                          |     |
|      | A. Sample House Weekly Schedule                     | 101 |
|      | B. Sample House Rules CommitteeStructured Rule | 103 |
|      | C. Sample Senate Hotline Email                      | 105 |
|      | D. Samples of Most CommonAmendment Trees       | 107 |