

Contents

Foreword	ix
DAN DOCTOROFF
Preface	xi
1 THE INVESTMENT TRAP	1
Rich City, Poor City ■ Cities Are the Locomotives of Nations ■ The Turbo City ■ The Treadmill Town ■ From Treadmill Town to Turbo City
2 WHY SOME CITIES FAIL	25
Treadmill Tribulations ■ Social and Human Wealth Lie Fallow ■ Infrastructure Delusions ■ Listening to Pied Pipers
3 TURBO CITIES	55
The False Promises of Exclusive and Extensive Cities ■ The False Promise of Extensive Cities ■ Turnaround Cities ■ How Turbo Cities Build Assets ■ Summing Up the Secret of Turbo Cities

4	TAKING CONTROL OF A CITY'S BALANCE SHEET	87
	The Hidden Value of Public Wealth in Cleveland ■ Financial Accounting, Accountability, and the Rise and Fall of Cities ■ Turbo Cities Focus on Stocks, Treadmill Towns on Flows ■ A Proper Public Sector Balance Sheet as a Promoter of Economic Growth
5	THE URBAN WEALTH FUND: A CONDUIT FOR MAXIMIZING VALUE	121
	Publicly Owned Commercial Assets ■ The Real Estate Challenge ■ Developing the Real Estate Portfolio and Maximizing Value ■ The Balance Sheet: Prerequisite of an Independent Urban Wealth Fund ■ Fundamental Principles of Professional Asset Management ■ How to Create an Urban Wealth Fund
6	SUCCESSING WITH URBAN WEALTH FUNDS: SOME CASE STUDIES	147
	Singapore: Temasek ■ Portfolio Management of Real Estate vs. Operational Assets ■ Hong Kong: The MTR Corporation ■ Copenhagen: City and Port Urban Wealth Fund ■ Hamburg: HafenCity ■ London: Continental Railways Limited ■ Jernhusen: A Property Developer in Sweden ■ Locum: A Specialized Health-Care Real Estate Manager in Sweden ■ Stockholm Stadshus: A Residential Property Holding Company ■ London: Potential for an Urban Wealth Fund
7	SHRINKING THE SOCIAL DEBT OF CITIES	179
	Social Investments ■ Social Investment in Emerging-Market Cities ■ Freeing Social Investment from Entrenched Interests
8	BOOSTING THE VALUE OF HUMAN ASSETS	199
	The Education-as-Investment Fallacy ■ The Value of Human Assets ■ Grow Human Assets with Better Lifelong Learning

- Tailor Learning to Employers' Needs ■ Increase Demand for Citizens' Skills ■ Political Barriers to Increasing the Value of Human Assets

9	REINVENTING CITY DEMOCRACY	211
	Case Study: Jaime Castro's Three Lonely Years in Bogotá ■ Cities That Get Stuck ■ From "Soft City" to More Democracy

Notes 223

Index 245