

CONTENTS

Publication Note	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
Introduction	1
 1987
1 Indigenizing Production of the Santana	8
 1988
2 Make the Supply of Non-Staple Foods for Shanghai's Residents a Breakthrough Point in Our Work	20
3 Utilizing Foreign Investment and Developing Foreign Trade	23
4 Changes in Thinking Can Bring Great Hope to Shanghai	26
5 Invigorate Shanghai's Finances, Support Economic Revitalization	28
6 Speed Up Indigenous Production of Very Large-Scale Integrated Circuits	31
7 Unite and Strive Together to Do Good Economic Work	33
8 Speech at the First Plenary Session of the Ninth Shanghai People's Congress	44
9 Do a Good Job of Supplying Non-Staple Foods in the Spirit of Reform and Truth-Seeking	66
10 Foreign Trade: The Vanguard for Shanghai's Development of an Externally Oriented Economy	70
11 The Shanghai Municipal Government Must Be Prepared to Fight Hard for Revitalization	77
12 Play to Our Strengths in Science and Technology, and Fight the Good Fight for Key Industrial Projects	81
13 Some Principles for Establishing the Shanghai Foreign Investment Commission	87

14	A Few Comments on the Devolution of Powers	92
15	Press Conference Announcing the Establishment of the Shanghai Foreign Investment Commission	95
16	A Conversation with American Author Harrison Salisbury	101
17	The Research Office of the City Government Should Become the Mayor's Brain Trust	107
18	A Speech at Fudan University	111
19	Three Expectations of All City Officials at the Bureau Level and Above	125
20	An Interview with Kevin Sinclair of The Standard (Hong Kong)	132
21	Let Enterprises Swim by Themselves in the Markets	137
22	A Conversation with Siegfried Lengl, Secretary of the German Ministry for Economic Cooperation and Development	140
23	Develop High-Quality Services and Improve the Investment Environment	147
24	Some Specific Thoughts Regarding the Development of Pudong	151
25	Invigorate Large and Medium State-Owned Enterprises	156
26	The Problems of Dirt and Disorder in Shanghai	162
27	Work Assigned by Leaders Should Be Carried Out Thoroughly	164
28	Remarks at Three Study Meetings of the Members of the Standing Committee of the Municipal Party Committee	166
29	We Must Use Foreign Investments Boldly	174
30	Promote the Tight Integration of Sci-Tech with Production	178
31	Bonuses Should Reward the Diligent and Penalize the Lazy	186
32	What Matters in a Legal System Is Its Effectiveness	188
33	Always Remember That We Are Servants of the People	190
34	Letters and Petitions Are an Important Way to Keep in Touch with the People	192
35	We Are Resolved to Rectify the Taxi Industry	199
36	A Conversation with C. Y. Leung, Director of Jones Lang Wooten (Hong Kong)	204
37	A Joint Interview with Japanese Correspondents Based in Shanghai	212
38	A Conversation with the World Bank's Shahid Javed Burki and Delegation	220
39	A Conversation with German Expert Werner Gerich	228

40	Quality Is Shanghai's Lifeblood	236
41	A Few Comments about Economic Hot Spots	240

1989

42	The Key Issues and Key Tasks to Focus on in 1989	248
43	Eliminate Slush Funds	255
44	A Letter to the Shanghai Educators Union	257
45	Further Promote Stable Growth of the Rural Economy	259
46	How to Stabilize the Markets	266
47	Speech at a Shanghai Conference on Oversight Work	269
48	Shanghai's Industrial Restructuring Must Blaze New Paths	278
49	We Must Be Determined to Fix the City's Street Traffic	284
50	Launch the "Two Increases and Two Decreases" Campaign and Stabilize Shanghai's Economy	291
51	Keep Shanghai Stable, Keep the Overall Situation Stable	297
52	Get Organized and Maintain Shanghai's Stability	300
53	Shanghai Must Not Descend into Chaos	311
54	Further Consolidate Shanghai's Stability	317
55	The Basic Qualities Socialist Entrepreneurs Must Have	324
56	To Stabilize the Economy, It's Essential to Stabilize Prices	328
57	Cleaning Up Companies Is an Important Measure for Punishing Corruption	332
58	Several Issues Regarding Attracting Foreign Investment	335
59	A Directive on Quality Management	338
60	Concentrate Our Efforts on Winning the Trust of the People through Several Measures	340
61	We Must Be Determined to Treat the Upstream Pollution of the Huangpu River	344
62	Leading Cadres Must Not Be Detached from the People	351
63	Technical Upgrading at Enterprises Must Follow a New Path	355
64	Discipline Inspection Cadres Must Dare to Tackle Tough Cases	361
65	Five Practical Things to Do in Building Clean Government among Rural Cadres	364
66	Explain Difficulties Clearly and Energize Ourselves	366

67	Some Thoughts on the Three-Year Restructuring of Shanghai's Industries and Their Long-Term Growth	372
68	Borrow from Experiences of Other Countries and Speed Up Development of an Externally Oriented Economy	380
69	Revitalize and Develop the Arts in Shanghai	383
70	Good Prospects for Shanghai's Electrical Machinery Exports	388
71	To Overcome Our Difficulties, We Must Rely Wholeheartedly on the Working Class	394
72	Shanghai's Hopes Lie in the Development of Pudong	399
73	Resolutely Implement Governance and Rectification Measures	405
74	On the Development and Opening Up of Shanghai's Financial Sector	419

1990

75	Publicity in the News Media Should Be Fact-Based	425
76	Remarks Made While Reporting to Yang Shangkun	432
77	Some Comments on the Central Committee's "Decision on Strengthening Ties with the People"	437
78	Remarks Made While Reporting to Qiao Shi	442
79	Do Three Practical Things for the People of Shanghai	446
80	A Conversation with C. Y. Leung	449
81	Reporting to Yao Yilin on the Development of Pudong	456
82	A Conversation with Moeen Qureshi, Senior Vice President of the World Bank, and Delegation	467
83	The Municipal Party Committee Must Focus on Party Conduct and on Establishing Clean Government	474
84	Speech at the Establishment of the Shanghai Overseas Exchange Association	479
85	Do Good Urban Planning	485
86	In the "Two Increases and Two Decreases Campaign," Take Substantive Action, Dare to Manage, and Take Genuine Action	489
87	A Speech to Cadres from the Shanghai Planning Commission	496
88	Shanghai Will Further Open Up to the World	505
89	Thoughts from a Visit to Hong Kong and Singapore	514
90	About Our Visit to the United States	524

91	A Press Conference on Policies to Open Up and Develop Pudong	531
92	A Letter to Shanghai's Sanitation Workers	536
93	Do Good Planning and Design for the Pudong New Area	537
94	A Conversation with Attila Karaosmanoglu, Vice President of the World Bank	539
95	On Shanghai's 10-Year Plan and the Eighth 5-Year Plan	544
96	We Must Properly Protect the Unpolluted Land of Chongming	554
97	Take Information Work Seriously and Do It Well	559
98	Some Comments on Developing a Securities Market	563

1991

99	Basically Resolve Shanghai's Housing Problems within 10 Years	566
100	Help State-Owned Enterprises Resolve Their Dilemma	573
101	Some Comments on Rebuilding Shanghai's Old Urban Areas	583
102	Speech at the Municipal Party's Discipline Commission	590
103	Shanghai Will Have No Future If We Don't Overcome Bureaucratism	599
104	Four Comments on Doing Good Work with Cadres	601
105	The Drivers of Shanghai's Development	611
106	Creating a New Outlook for Community Work	616
	Index	621