NOTE ON THE METHODOLOGY OF THE IRAQ INDEX:

Although the footnotes to the Iraq Index document our sources in detail, it is worth noting here a few broad points. The majority of our information comes from the U.S. Government, though we must often analyze it and process it further to show trends over the full period since Saddam Hussein fell in 2003. Some information comes from foreign journalists on the ground and from nongovernmental organizations; a very modest amount to date comes from Iraqi sources. Most tables and charts are straightforward representations of data as we obtain it from the above primary sources, with only modest further analysis and processing required. However, a few graphics, such as those on crime and unemployment rates, require more methodological work (and more assumptions) on our part—and are as a result also perhaps somewhat less precise than most of the tables and charts.

SECURITY INDICATORS

U.S. TROOP FATALITIES SINCE MARCH 19, 2003¹

Total from March 19, 2003 (start of major combat operations) through July 30, 2006:

Fatalities (all kinds): 2,578

Fatalities in hostile incidents: 2,043

Fatalities in non-hostile incidents: 535

NOTE ON U.S. TROOP FATALITIES SINCE MARCH 19, 2003 TABLE:

The daily Department of Defense casualty reports that we use for our monthly estimates on U.S. troops killed doesn't make entirely clear when in a 24 hour period casualties were incurred. Since the reports are published 10 AM daily, there is the possibility that our numbers for January 2005 and onwards are slightly off due to uncertainties about whether casualties occurred on the first and last day of each month. We have chosen to interpret the numbers in the casualty report as representing fatalities that occurred throughout the previous day. Total fatalities include seven civilians working for the Department of Defense.

NOTE ON CAUSE OF DEATH DETAIL TABLE: Helicopter losses include deaths caused by both non-hostile helicopter accidents and helicopters downed by hostile fire. Hostile losses were as follows: 3/03 (8 killed); 4/03 (2); 11/03 (39); 1/04 (10); 4/04 (2); 5/05 (2); 6/05 (2); 11/05 (2); 1/06 (4); 4/06 (2); 5/06 (2) total: 75. Non-hostile losses were as follows: 4/03 (6); 5/03 (7); 9/03 (1); 1/04 (4); 2/04 (2); 8/04 (2); 10/04 (2); 12/04 (2); 1/05 (33); 12/05 (2); 1/06 (9); 5/06 (2); total: 72. The "Non-Hostile Causes" data then does not include non-hostile helicopter losses.

The total number of deaths as listed here may vary slightly from the Total Fatalities listed under "US Troop Fatalities Since March 19, 2003" because the two charts use data from different sources. Any discrepancy is likely to be a result of a difference in the cut-off time until which data was included each day and at the end of the month.

U.S. TROOPS WOUNDED IN ACTION SINCE MARCH 2003⁵

Total from March 19, 2003 through July 30, 2006: 19,157

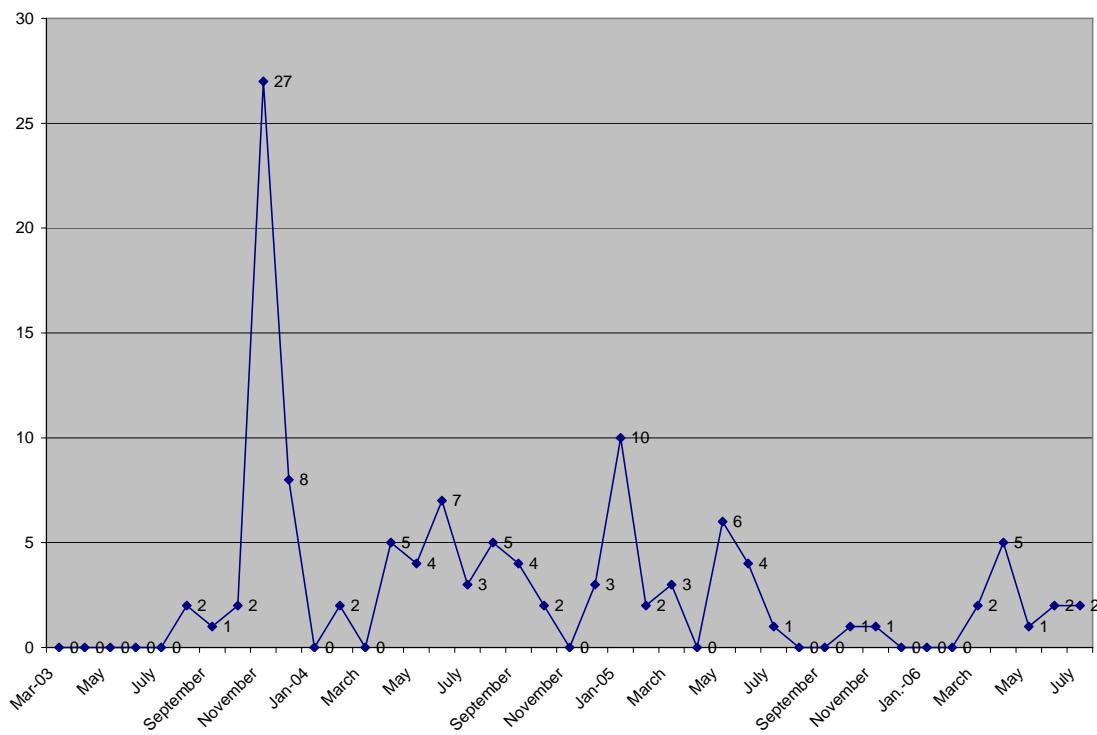

The daily Department of Defense casualty reports that we use for our monthly estimates on U.S troops wounded does not make it entirely clear when in a 24-hour period casualties were incurred. Since the reports are published at 10AM daily, there is possibility that our numbers for January 2005 and onwards are slightly off due to uncertainties about whether casualties occurred on the first or the last of each month.

1,300 Iraqi military and police were killed between June 2003 and January 4, 2005 according to Iraqi Minister of Interior Falah Hasan Al-Naqib. "Iraqi Officers, Police Members Killed so Far Total 1,300," Kuwait News Agency (KUNA) January 4, 2005.

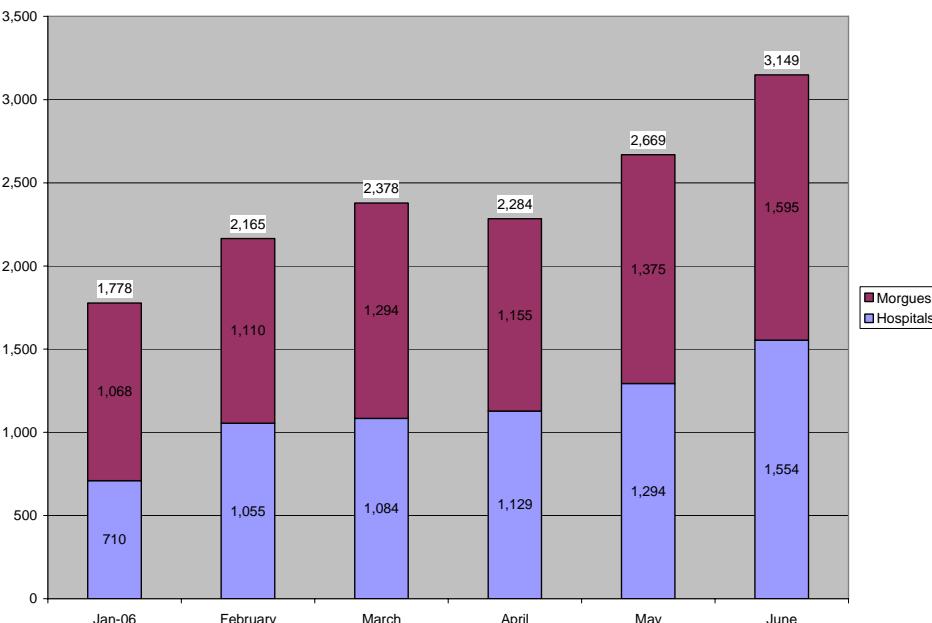

Maj. Gen. Joseph Peterson, the top American police trainer in Iraq, noted through his spokesperson that 1,497 Iraqi police officers were killed and 3,256 wounded in 2005. Eric Schmitt, "2,000 More MPs Will Help Train the Iraqi Police," New York Times, January 16, 2006.

NOTE ON CAR BOMBS IN IRAQ CHART: Many numbers in this chart are estimates. Please see relevant footnote for details.

IRAQI CIVILIANS KILLED BY VIOLENCE SINCE JANUARY 1, 2006¹¹

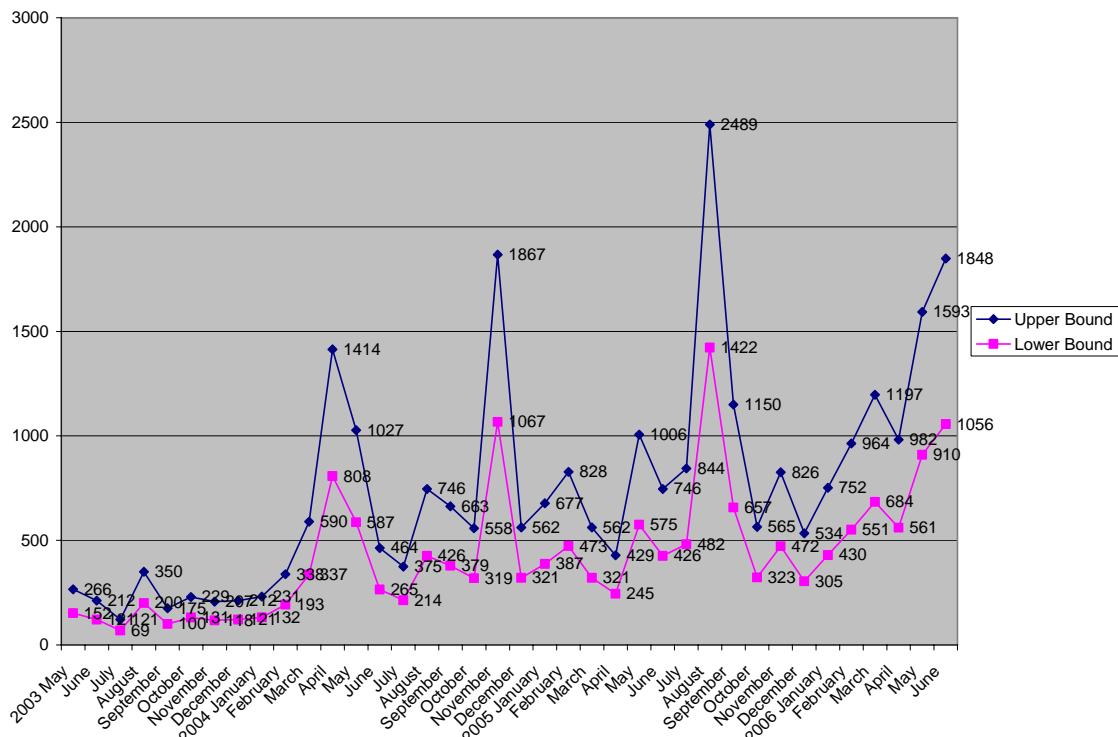

NOTE ON IRAQI CIVILIANS KILLED TABLE: It is no longer practical to differentiate between crime-related deaths and war-related deaths, as the nature of the conflict has blurred the distinction between these categories. We view as more accurate the numbers published in the UN Assistance Mission for Iraq, "Human Rights Report: 1 May–30 June, 2006," which combines the Iraq Ministry of Health's tally of deaths counted at hospitals with the Baghdad Medico-Legal Institute's tally of deaths counted at morgues. "The death toll [in the UN report is] the most precise measurement of civilian deaths provided by any government organization since the invasion. It represent[s] a substantial increase over the figures in daily news media reports." Kirk Semple, "Sectarian Violence Continues in Iraq," New York Times, July 19, 2006.

IRAQI CIVILIANS KILLED AS A RESULT OF ACTS OF WAR SINCE MAY 1, 2003–JUNE 30, 2006

Total May 2003 through June 2006: 16,300 – 28,600

These numbers do not include Iraqi civilians killed during major combat operations March 19, 2003-April 30, 2003. 203-350 Iraqi civilians were killed July 1-14, 2005.

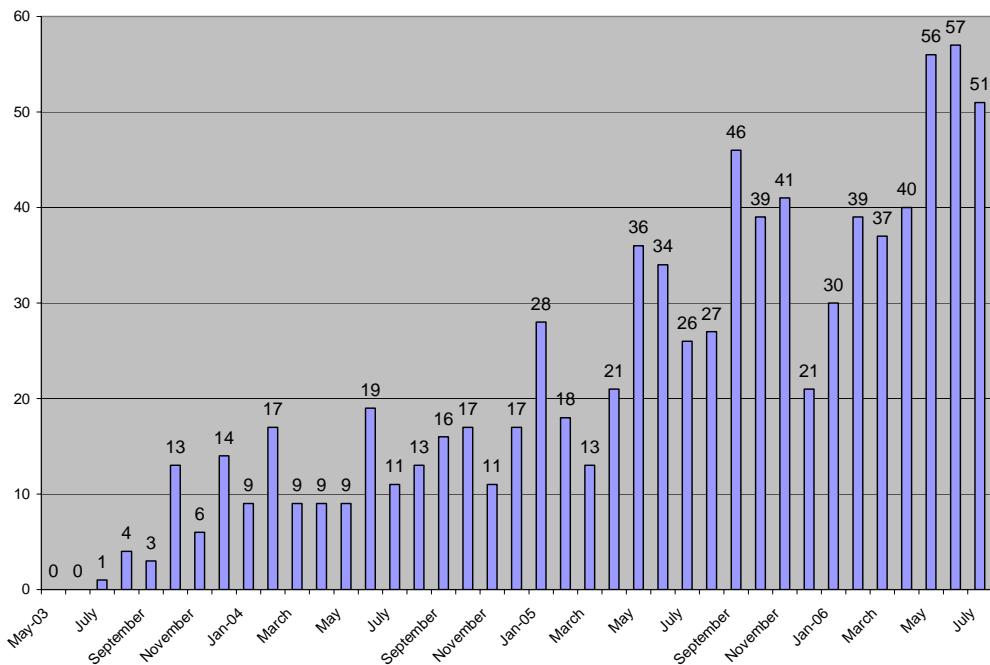

NOTE ON IRAQI CIVILIANS KILLED TABLE: As of July 2006, this chart will no longer be updated. Please refer to the chart “IRAQI CIVILIANS KILLED BY VIOLENCE SINCE JANUARY 1, 2006” for the most recent data. It is no longer practical to differentiate between crime-related deaths and war-related deaths, as the nature of the conflict has blurred the distinction between these categories.

It is still unclear how many civilians were killed in the outburst of sectarian violence directly related to the destruction of the Askariya mosque in Samarra on February 22, 2006. Estimates range from 220 (the number of confirmed deaths according to the US military on March 1st) to 1,300 (early estimates according to morgue workers). Most estimates lie in the high 300s, but some officials believe the final tally could reach 550.¹³

Information for May 2003-May 2006 is based upon data from Iraq Body Count (<http://www.iraqbodycount.net/database/>), but does not include entries recorded at the morgue or those which clearly involve the death of Iraqi police, police recruits, or Iraq Civil Defense Forces in an attempt to index only civilians killed by acts of war. IBC removes military personnel. This formulation forms the lower bound. We recognize that these estimates are most probably lower than the actual number since many separate incidents go unreported or unnoticed. The upper bound is therefore 1.75 times the lower bound, a rough estimate which reflects the fact that the estimates for civilian casualties from the Iraqi Ministry of the Interior were 75 percent higher than those of our Iraq Body Count-based estimate over the December 2003 – May 2005 period. Ellen Knickmeyer, “Iraq Puts Civilian Toll at 12,000.” Washington Post, June 3, 2005.

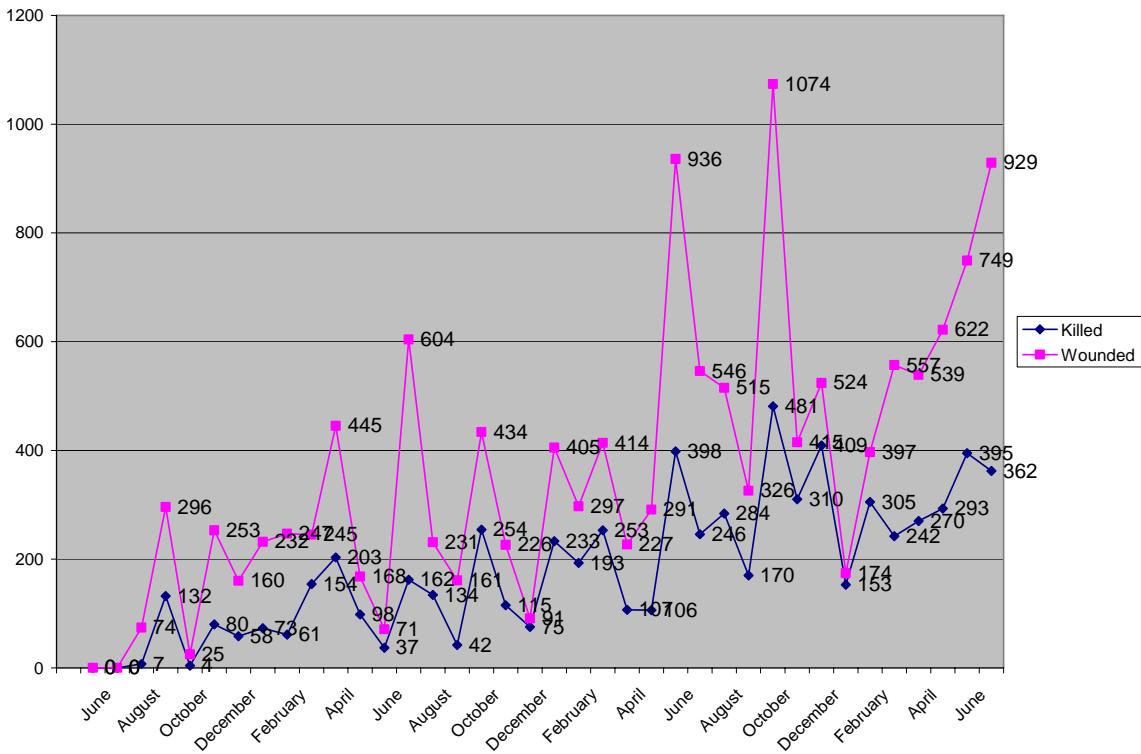

Estimates for June 2006 are 16% higher than those for May 2006, based on information reported in the article “Wave of Bodies in Baghdad’s Central Morgue Signals a Stepped-Up Pace of Sectarian Killing,” New York Times, July 5, 2006.

MULTIPLE FATALITY BOMBINGS¹⁴

Total as of July 30, 2006: 858 (of which at least 326 were suicide bombings)

KILLED AND WOUNDED IN MULTIPLE FATALITY BOMBINGS¹⁵

Total as of July 30, 2006:

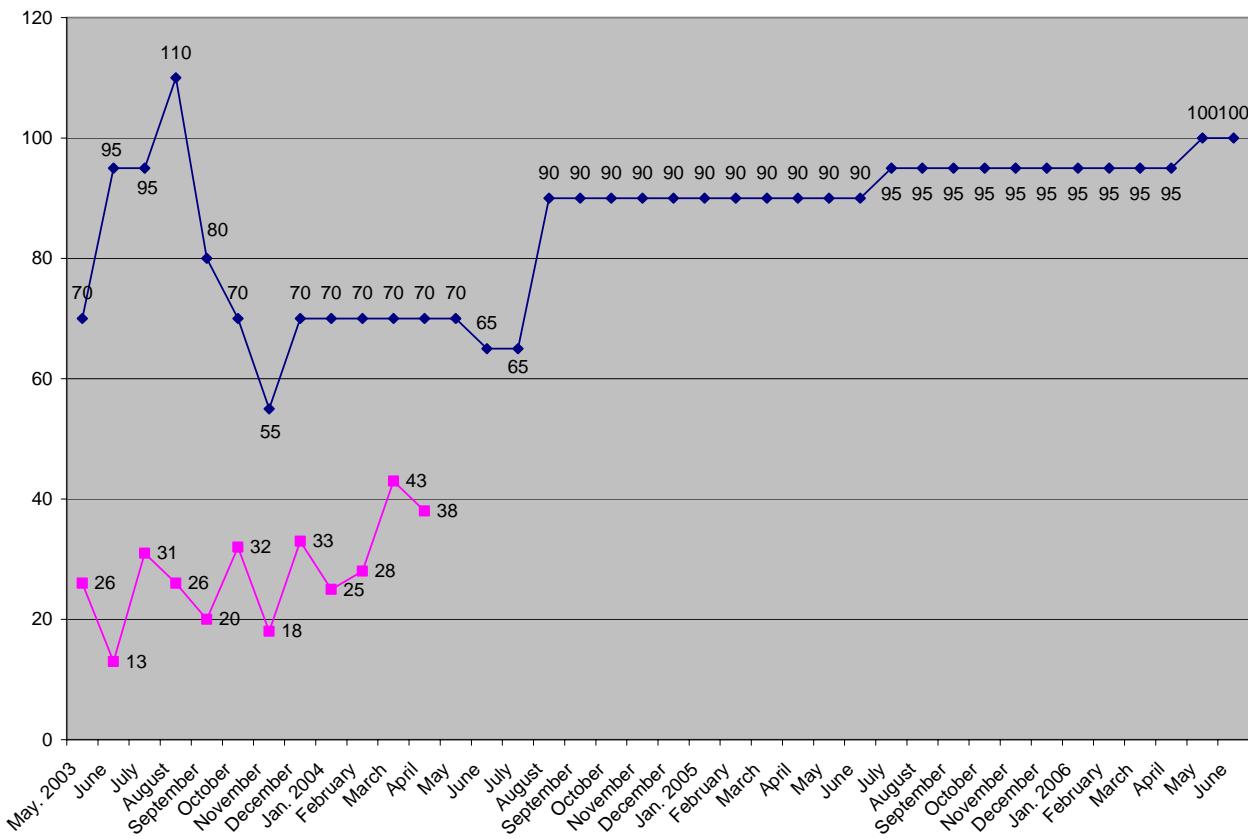

Killed: 7,389

Wounded: 15,061

NOTE ON MULTIPLE FATALITY BOMBINGS AND KILLED AND WOUNDED IN MULTIPLE FATALITY

BOMBINGS TABLES: Included as data for these graphs are any bombings (including IEDs / roadside bombs) that caused at least three fatalities. The data on multiple fatality IED / roadside bombs are estimates and may have a margin of error of +/- one bomb and approximately five fatalities and five wounded.

CRIME-RELATED DEATHS IN BAGHDAD SINCE MAY, 2003¹⁶

NOTE ON CRIME RELATED DEATHS IN BAGHDAD: As of July 2006, this chart will no longer be updated. Please refer to the chart "IRAQI CIVILIANS KILLED BY VIOLENCE SINCE JANUARY 1, 2006" for the most recent data. It is no longer practical to differentiate between crime-related deaths and war-related deaths, as the nature of the conflict has blurred the distinction between these categories.

Estimates for each month (as represented by the upper, blue line) are per 100,000 and typically based on the number of bodies brought to the Baghdad morgue with mortal gunshot wounds. Our estimates could be too high, as some of the gunshot victims may be insurgents killed intentionally by U.S. military, or too low since many murder victims are never taken to the morgue, but buried quickly and privately and therefore never recorded in official tallies. The homicide rate is calculated based on an estimated population of 5.6 million people in Baghdad. The lower, pink line represents murders recorded by the Baghdad Police Department, adjusted to represent an annual rate per 100,000. Seth Jones, Jeremy Wilson, Andrew Rathmell, K. Jack Riley, Establishing Law and Order After Conflict, RAND Corporation, Santa Monica, CA, 2005.

We try in this graph to account only for criminal murders (and not sectarian violence) to the extent the distinction is meaningful. Murders have increased greatly since February 2006, with the homicide rate tripling, (Jeffrey Gettleman, "Bound, Blindfolded and Dead: The Face of Revenge in Baghdad," New York Times, March 26, 2006) but much of this increase is a result of sectarian violence.

Bodies processed at the Baghdad morgue follow the trend above: prior to the invasion, the number of bodies processed monthly was significantly less than 100, early in 2005 it stood at 500 and in July 2005 it peaked at 1,100. More than half of the number of bodies processed in November and December 2005 bore gunshot wounds. The numbers likely underrepresent the true number of casualties according to the UN. Ellen Knickmeyer, "Ex-Envoy: Execution Victims Spike at Baghdad Morgue," Washington Post, March 3, 2006.

The homicide rate for Washington, DC was 35 per 100,000 in 2005. Prince George's County, Maryland, had a rate of 20 per 100,000; Fairfax County, Virginia saw 2 homicides per 100,000. Allison Klein and Del Quentin Wilber, "DC Area Slayings Climbed in 2005," Washington Post, January 2, 2006.

Interpol lists the following nationwide numbers per 100,000 citizens for countries in the region: Libya 2.08, Jordan 6.33, Lebanon 3.38, Saudi Arabia, 0.71. However, Interpol notes that these [nationwide] statistics cannot be used as a basis for comparison between different countries. This is partly because "police statistics reflect reported crimes, but this only represents a fraction of the real level. The volume of crimes not reported to the police may depend on the actions, policies and perceptions of the police. These can vary with time, as well as from country to country." Because of the inherent difficulty in interpreting and comparing international murder rates, all such statistics – including those stated in the table above – should be interpreted guardedly.

NOTE ON NON-IRAQI CIVILIAN CONTRACTORS KILLED IN IRAQ: This list is incomplete and does not include an additional 44 contractors that were killed up until December 31, 2004. Since we do not know during which month these deaths occurred they are not represented in the graph above.

As of March, 2005, there were more than 20,000 foreign (non-Iraqi) private military contractors in Iraq. 6,000 of these are in armed tactical roles. Peter W. Singer, "Outsourcing War," Foreign Affairs, March 2005.

January 2004	2 per day in Baghdad
December 2004	10 per day in Baghdad
December 2005	Up to 30 per day nationwide
March 2006	30-40 per day nationwide

NOTE ON IRAQIS KIDNAPPED TABLE: The numbers on this table may be lower than the actual number of kidnappings as the Iraqi Police suggests that kidnappings are widely underreported. Ellen Knickmeyer and Jonathon Finer, "In Iraq, 425 Foreigners Estimated Kidnapped Since 2003," Washington Post, December 25, 2005. The Iraqi Interior Ministry estimates that 5,000 Iraqis were kidnapped nationwide between December 2003 and April 2005 (Haifa Zangana, "Blair Made a Pledge to Iraqis Once," The Guardian, April 22, 2005). According to Assad Abboud, "Iraq's Forgotten Kidnap Victims Suffer in Silence," Agence France Presse, March 25, 2006, the average ransom price for a kidnapped Iraqi is $30,000. The American Embassy in Baghdad estimated that 5-30 Iraqis are abducted each day, but also acknowledged the uncertainty of such a figure (Kirk Semple, "Kidnapped in Iraq: Victim's Tale of Clockwork Death and Ransom," New York Times, May 7, 2006).

NOTE ON FOREIGN NATIONALS KIDNAPPED IN IRAQ TABLE:

*Developments: This category shows activity in the status of hostages, but does not necessarily apply to hostages kidnapped during the same month. Please see relevant footnote for more information.

According to the Baghdad Hostage Working Group at the US Embassy in Baghdad as cited in Erik Rye and Joon Mo Kang, "Hostages of War," New York Times, May 17, 2006, 439 foreigners have been kidnapped in Baghdad since the start of the war. These include 165 private contractors, 63 (mostly truck) drivers, 39 journalists, 23 NGO workers, and 15 diplomats or government employees.

An Associated Press tally shows that at least 13 Americans have been kidnapped. Four have been killed, four have escaped or been freed and five are considered taken, missing, or unknown. This list may be incomplete. "The Fate of Americans Taken Hostage in Iraq," Associated Press, January 20, 2006.

TOTAL NUMBER OF INSURGENTS DETAINED OR KILLED²⁸

NOTE ON TOTAL NUMBER OF INSURGENTS DETAINED OR KILLED TABLE: The estimate of suspected insurgents killed or detained since May 2003 is a very rough one. The substantial increase in number of people detained or killed in November 2003 and onwards may not imply a huge increase in people detained or killed but rather that the data improved starting that month.

In Bradley Graham, "Zarqawi 'Hijacked' Insurgency; US General Says Foreign Fighters Now Seen as Main Threat," Washington Post, September 28, 2005, Graham notes that 315 foreign fighters had been killed and 330 detained since March.

The estimated strength of Al Qaida in Iraq is more than 1,000 nationwide, although the exact number is unknown. It is presumed this includes both Iraqis and foreign fighters. NOTE ON TERRORISM AND IRAQ TABLE: Source is Country Reports on Terrorism, United States Department of State, Office for the Coordinator for Counterterrorism, April 2006. Numbers include attacks against non-combatants and thus do not include attacks against American or coalition troops. Numbers for 2004 are estimates based on Mark Mazzetti, "Insurgent Attacks on Iraqis Soared, Report Says," New York Times, April 29, 2006. American officials cite a change in the methodology of compiling terrorism data as being responsible for much of the increase between 2004 and 2005, particularly for worldwide attacks.

NATIONALITIES OF FOREIGN MILITANTS IN IRAQ, SEPTEMBER 2005³³

NOTE ON NATIONALITIES OF FOREIGN MILITANTS GRAPH: Two other sources have cited the nationalities of non-Iraqi Jihadists (one specifying those captured, the other those killed) in Iraq, and the three reports suggest somewhat different trends. Reuven Paz cites Saudi Arabia as contributing the highest number of jihadists killed (94) from November to March, 2005, followed by Syria (16) and Kuwait (11). Reuven Paz, "Arab Volunteers Killed in Iraq: An Analysis," Global Center for International Affairs Center (GLORIA), Occasional Papers, Volume 3 (2005), Number 1, March 2005.

According to Dexter Filkins, "Foreign Fighters Captured in Iraq Come From 27, Mostly Arab, Lands," New York Times, October 21, 2005 and Edward Wong, "Iraqi Constitution Vote Split On Ethnic and Sect Lines; Election Panel Reports No Major Fraud," New York Times, October 23, 2005, Egypt has contributed the highest number foreign nationals captured (78) from April to October 2005. This report also cites Syria (66), Sudan (41), Saudi Arabia (32), Jordan (17), Iran (13), Palestinians (12), and Tunisia (10) as nations with 10 or more nationals found in Iraq. 18 countries have contributed less than 10 captured foreign nationals, for a total of 311 included jihadists.

Maj. Gen. Rick Lynch states that at least 96 percent of suicide bombers are not Iraqis. Chris Tomlinson, "US General: Suicide and Car Bomb Attacks Down in Iraq," Associated Press, December 1, 2005.

According to MNF-I (Press Conference, 20 April 2006), Syria contributed the highest number of foreign nationals captured since September 2005 (51). Egypt was second with 38, and Saudi Arabia (23), Sudan (22) and Jordan (16) round out the top five.

NUMBER OF DAILY ATTACKS BY INSURGENTS³⁸

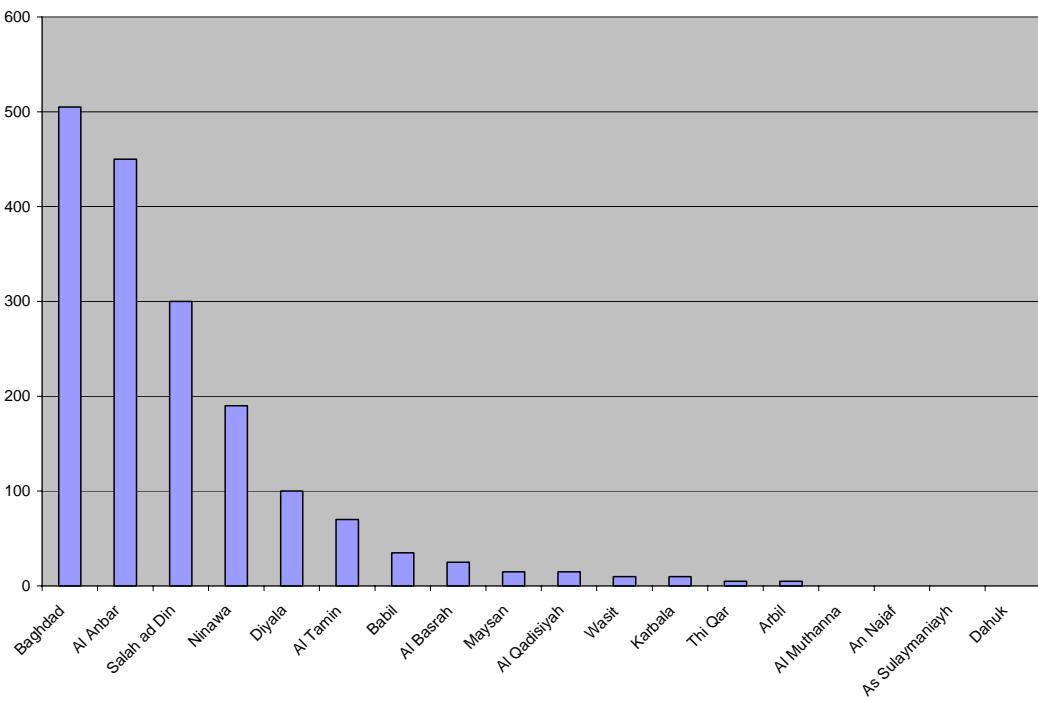

NOTE ON DAILY ATTACKS CHART: Numbers for June 2003 are incomplete. Major General Webster has noted that the number of successful attacks has dropped to about 10% from 25-30% a year ago. Ann Scott Tyson, "Departing US Commander Reports Progress in Baghdad," Washington Post, December 31, 2005.

TOTAL ATTACKS BY PROVINCE: 29 AUGUST 2005 – 16 SEPTEMBER 2005⁴⁰

NOTE ON GRAPHS REGARDING INSURGENT ATTACKS: Insurgent attacks tended to be concentrated (85%) in 4 of 18 provinces. These provinces contain less than 42% of the Iraqi population. Half of the Iraqi population (12 provinces) lives in areas that experience 6% of all attacks. 6 provinces listed a statistically insignificant number of attacks based on population size. 80% of all attacks are directed towards Coalition Forces. 80% of all casualties are suffered by the Iraqi population.⁴¹

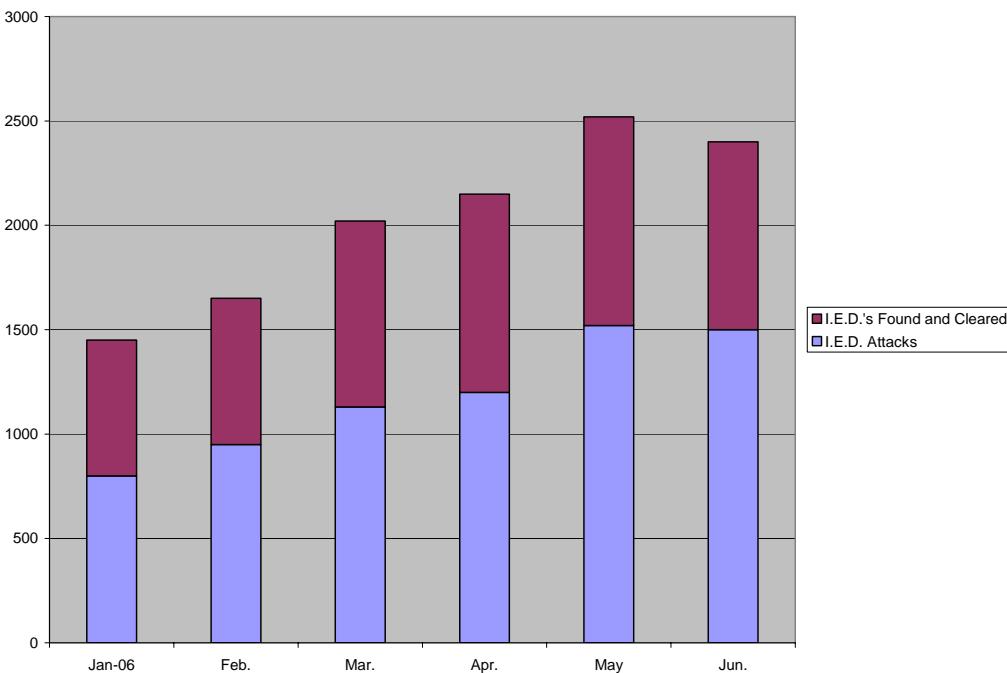

AMERICAN MILITARY HELICOPTERS DOWNED IN IRAQ⁴²

Total through July 30, 2006: 51

NOTE ON AMERICAN MILITARY HELICOPTERS DOWNED IN IRAQ TABLE: Of the 50 helicopters downed in Iraq since May 2003, at least 27 were downed by enemy fire. Of the three January 2006 crashes, two are still being investigated. One was shot down by enemy fire and is included above. We have counted one of the others as being downed by enemy fire as well, given the available evidence. Hostile fire is suspected in the July 2006 crash, but it has not been confirmed and therefore not counted as such.

That is a sharp increase since January, when there were 834 such attacks and 620 cases in which the bombs were found before they exploded.”

NOTE ON BAATHIST & OTHER RESISTANCE LEADERS STILL AT LARGE TABLE: After factoring in the killing of Abu Musab al-Zarqawi on June 7, 2006, this table will no longer be updated. There is not enough public information about the remaining members of the list to determine which are still active and which have been captured or killed. In addition, as the conflict persists, it is likely that other leaders will continue to emerge, taking the places of those no longer active.

NOTE ON IRAQI SECURITY FORCES ON DUTY TABLE: Units in the top three levels are all operational – that is, capable of (and frequently engaged in) operations against the enemy. Units at level three are fighting alongside Coalition units. Level two units are “in the lead” – this level is the critical achievement that marks the point at which a unit can take over its own battle space. Units at level two can control their own areas of responsibility and, therefore, allow Coalition units to focus elsewhere.⁵³ The February 2006 number in Levels I and II for the MOD can be divided into 53 Army and Special Forces Combat battalions and 8 Support, Air Force and Navy battalions. Care should be taken when evaluating the quality of MOI forces as there have been various reports of Iraqi police units dominated by sectarian interests.

NOTE ON ETHNICITY IN THE SECURITY FORCES: 978 Sunni men, including 800 from Fallujah became the first all-Sunni class in the Iraqi army to graduate as privates from American-run basic training on May 1, 2006.⁵⁴ However, Sunnis make up less than 10 percent of the enlisted forces.⁵⁵

NOTE ON MOD FORCES CHART: *The numbers in this column may decrease as units are assessed into higher levels (i.e. "in the lead" or "fully independent"). Numbers are as of 15 May, 2006.

Iraqi security forces are now responsible for securing 60% of the Baghdad more or less independently. Dexter Filkins, "US to Intensify Army Oversight of Iraqi Police," New York Times, December 30, 2005.

As of May 15, there were 2 Iraqi divisions, 16 brigades, and 63 Army and National Police battalions with security lead in their areas of responsibility. These areas include more than 30,000 square miles of Iraq.... As of May 6, 2006, the MOD, MOI, or Ministry of Finance has assumed control and responsibility for 34 Forward Operating Bases from Coalition forces. "Measuring Stability and Security in Iraq May 2006, Report to Congress in Accordance with the Department of Defense Appropriations Act 2006 (Section 9010)," page 49.

Today there are three Iraqi divisions, 18 Iraqi brigades and some 69 Iraqi battalions that are actually operating in the lead across Iraq. To put that in perspective for you, six months ago one division, four brigades and 23 battalions. "News Briefing with Secretary Rumsfeld and Gen. Casey," Department of Defense, June 22, 2006.

The Minister of Interior signed an order to reorganize and merge the Police Commandos, the Public Order and Mechanized Police, and the Emergency Response Unit (ERU) to form a single force, the Iraqi National Police, on April 1, 2006. The National Police are organized with a National Police Headquarters, under which will fall the 1st and 2nd National Police Divisions, the 1st National Police Mechanized Brigade, and the ERU. The two divisions of National Police were formed from the Commando Division and Public Order Division. The 1st National Police Mechanized Brigade will remain a direct supporting unit. The ERU, previously part of the Ministry's Supporting Forces organization, has been reassigned as a direct reporting unit to the National Police Headquarters. NOTE ON NATIONWIDE UNEMPLOYMENT TABLE: Estimates of Iraq's unemployment rate varies, but we estimate it to be between 28-40%. The CPA has referred to a 25% unemployment rate, the Iraqi Ministry of Planning mentioned a 30% unemployment rate, whereas the Iraqi Ministry of Social Affairs claims it to be 48%. "Reconstructing Iraq," International Crisis Group, Report, September 2, 2004, p. 16, footnote 157. There is an inherent difficulty in measuring the Iraqi rate of unemployment over time. Because recent estimates are likely to be more accurate than older ones, but also higher, this means that despite an improvement in the economic situation nationwide, the numbers give the impression that it is getting worse. Considering the increase in entrepreneurial activity after the end of the war, we have for the purposes of this database assumed that there has been an improvement in unemployment levels, and hence weighted information supporting such a conclusion heavier than contradictory data reports. AMERICAN AID APPROPRIATED, OBLIGATED AND DISBURSED TOWARDS THE IRAQ RELIEF AND RECONSTRUCTION FUND (IRR&F I & II)⁹⁰

NOTE: An ‘appropriation’ is defined as a plan, approved by the Office of Management and Budget, to spend resources provided by law. Quarterly Update to Congress: 2207 Report, October 2004. An ‘obligation’ can be defined as “a definite commitment which creates a legal liability of the Government for the payment of appropriated funds for goods and services ordered or received.”

GAO/OGC-91-5: Principles of Federal Appropriations Law, Office of the General Council, July 1991. A ‘disbursement’ is an actual payment (check goes out the door) for goods/services received. GAO-04-902 R: Rebuilding Iraq, General Accounting Office, June 2004.

NOTE ON IRRF CHARTS: IRRF was established by the U.S. Congress in 2003, to rebuild Iraq's infrastructure, which was damaged from years of neglect, sanctions, and war. The $2.4 billion IRRF was set up in the Emergency Wartime Supplemental Appropriations Act - 2003, P.L. 108-11 (enacted April 16, 2003). IRRF 2 is funded with $18.6 billion ($18.4 billion after subtracting $210 million assistance for Jordan, Liberia, and Sudan) in the Emergency Supplemental Appropriations Act for Defense and for the Reconstruction of Iraq and Afghanistan - 2004, P.L. 108-106 (enacted November 6, 2003).

NOTES ON IRAQ: ESTIMATED EXTERNAL DEBT STOCK TABLE:

- A) Some debt has been reconciled, and the amount of reconciled debt is less than the initial claim. As a result, the estimates of debt outstanding prior to debt reduction are lower than those in the 2004 EPCA staff report.
- B) Assumes comparable debt reduction to all external debt.
- C) The projection assumes the deferral of payments of principal and most interests until 2011.
- D) The projection includes new debt. Iraq cleared its arrears to the Fund and the Bank in 2004.
- E) Debt service is actual amount paid (not accrued), excluding repayment of arrears.
- F) Assumes no additional debt other than a larger disbursement of Fund credit.

UPDATE ON 2003 MADRID CONFERENCE PLEDGES: Of the $13.5 billion pledged by donors other than the United States, $3.2 billion has been disbursed as of December 2005. NOTE ON HOW REVENUES ARE SPENT TABLE:

*Under the current system of government, Iraqi Kurdistan spends this money according to its priorities.

 If electricity subsidies are added to food and fuel subsidies, the combined category may amount to more than half of Iraq's GDP.

Up to $11 billion annually is spent on fuel and food subsidies and support for state-owned enterprises. Curt Tarnoff, "Iraq: Recent Developments in Reconstruction Assistance," Congressional Research Service, January 4, 2006, p. 5.

⁵¹ October 2005 numbers are according to Lt. Gen. David Petraeus, speech at the St. Regis Hotel, Washington, DC, November 7, 2005. The statistic of 32,000 in level I and II readiness is based upon Petraeus citation of 40 so prepared battalions and author's assumption that one battalion equals approximately 750 to 800 troops. Petraeus also stated that the number of 211,000 total Iraqi Security Forces is headed towards 325,000. Iraqi Security Forces have 20,000 vehicles in all, although the number of well-armored vehicles is much lower (author's estimate: about 300).
