ENUMERATOR: SHOW THE DIAGRAM (1) WITH THE LADDER / PICTURE OF THE LADDER

SAY: I would now like to ask you about different aspects of your life now and your life back in 2007. If you moved, think of your life in the place where you currently live and the one you used to live in 2007. There are nine steps on this ladder. Suppose the ninth step, at the very top, represents the best possible life for you in the place where you live or have lived, and the bottom represents the worst possible life for you.

ENUMERATOR: Help the child think of his own experience now and in 2007. The questions are not restricted to the geographic limits of these locations. They mainly focus on whether the child is living a better life now in comparison to the one he used to have before. For example, the child may have now better chances for work in his current location because it has better connectivity to a big city where he can find a job more easily than in the place he was living in 2007.

VERBAL CONSENT

We have already asked you many questions, but there are other topics on which we would like to ask you more questions. It is likely that you feel uncomfortable talking about these issues such as the consumption of cigarettes, alcohol, etc. Since we only want to know what young people like you think, we do not need to know your name, so we have designed a questionnaire to be answered anonymously. It will take you approximately 15 to 20 minutes in a proper environment away from other people who could listen and with the security for you that the information will be confidential.

Your participation answering this questionnaire will give us very important information about the problems and needs in different aspects of the life of young people like you.

The answers you give must be real, based on what you really think and/or do. There are no right or wrong answers. If there is a question you do not want to answer, you can leave it blank. If you do not understand any questions or need help, you can ask the interviewer who gave you the questionnaire. Once you have completed the questionnaire, you will put it in an envelope and close it, so you will be sure that the interviewer will not read your answers.

[Name of the young person], your decision to participate is completely voluntary. That means that if you want you can participate and fill out the questionnaire, and if you do not want there is no problem. Also, if you accepted to participate and at some point you decide not to continue, you can also do so, this will not hurt you or your family in any way.

Do you have any questions?

Would you like to respond? YES NO

Thank you for your participation.

ENUMERATOR: I declare that I have complied with the Assent / Consent process informing of the Youth the previous text.
