

DAVID B. WEINBERG is Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Judd Enterprises, Inc., a private, investment-management office with diverse interests including natural resources, beverages, and financial services. He is also President of its early-stage technology-investing affiliate, Digital Bandwidth, LLC.

Mr. Weinberg is a director of The Coca-Cola Company, a trustee and co-chair of the Foreign Policy Leadership Council of the Brookings Institution, a member of the International Council of the Belfer Center for Science and International Affairs of the Kennedy School of Government, and a member of the Council on Foreign Relations.

Mr. Weinberg also serves as a trustee of Northwestern University and as a life trustee of the Ravinia Festival Association, where he served as chairman from 1999 to 2001.

Mr. Weinberg previously served as a member of the board of directors of the Terra Foundation for American Art and as a member of the executive committee of the board of directors of the Economic Club of Chicago. He currently is a member of the steering committee of The Civic Committee of the Commercial Club of Chicago, having chaired its education committee from 2005 to 2008.

Mr. Weinberg earned an AB degree cum laude in Government from Harvard College and a JD degree from the Georgetown University Law Center, where he was an editor of the Journal of Law & Policy in International Business.

August 2019